

INSTITUTE FOR HUMANITIES (IH)

- ❖ A true interdisciplinary experience that connects between the different branches of humanities.
- ❖ Ability to analyze challenging informational and fictional texts.
- ❖ Continue to develop writing skills using the writing process in BOTH English and History classes.
- ❖ Continue to develop skills that will prepare students for Advanced Placement courses in English and History as 11th and 12th graders.

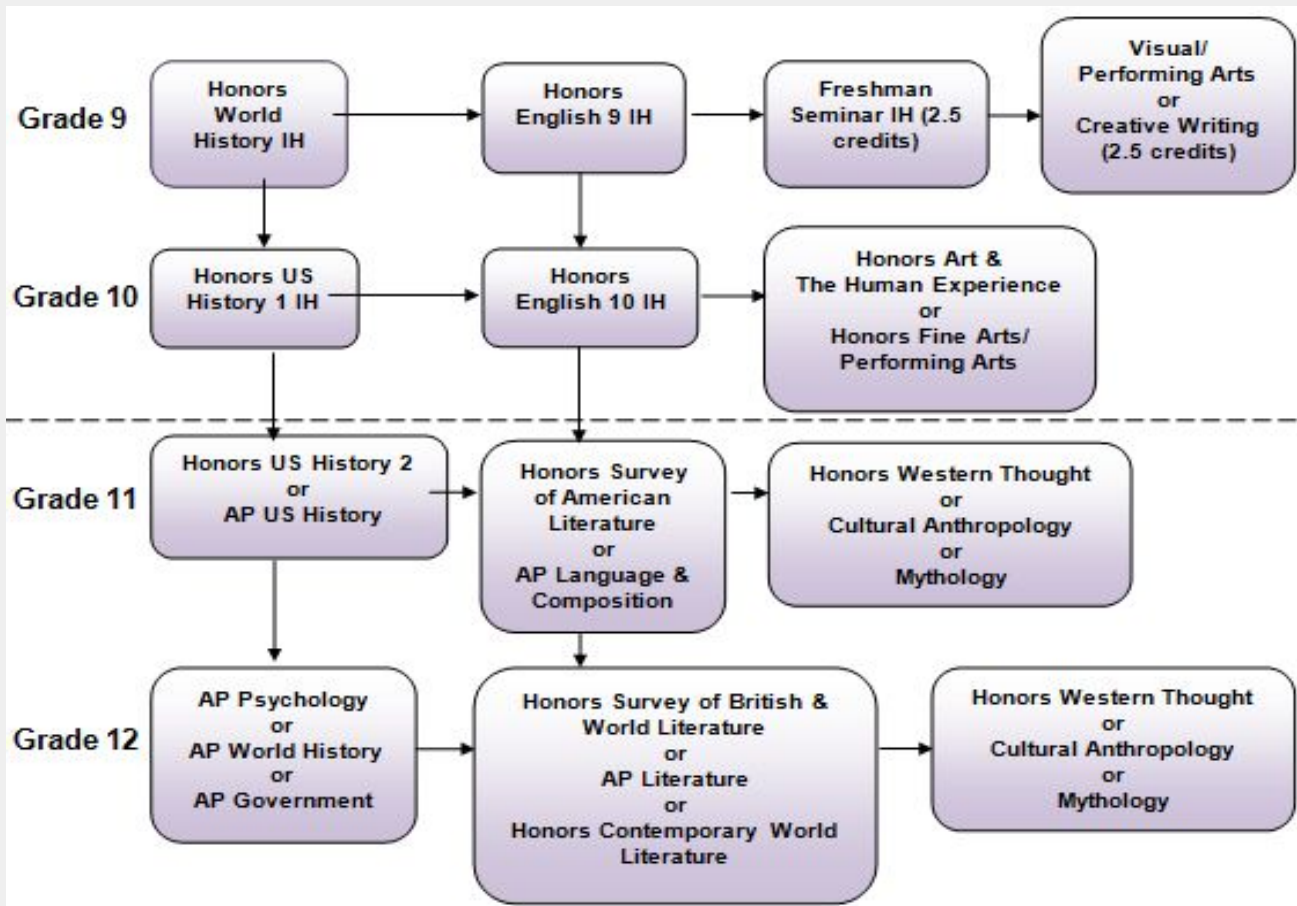

Interdisciplinary Projects

- ❖ Joint Summer Project
 - Analysis of Anthem by Ayn Rand
- ❖ Writing an original Short Story
- ❖ Analysis of Contemporary Music
 - SS: as it relates to the war experience of WWI soldiers
 - ELA: utilizing poetry explication skills
- ❖ Digital Poster on Animal Farm's connections to totalitarianism
- ❖ Research Paper on contemporary Europe

Field Trips

- ❖ Metropolitan Museum of Art, NYC
- ❖ Meet the Artist at Lincoln Center, NYC
- ❖ New York City Ballet and American Ballet Theater in the evening
- ❖ In-school experiences – i.e., Shakespeare Theater of New Jersey
- ❖ National Constitution Center, Philadelphia

INSTITUTE FOR HUMANITIES (IH)

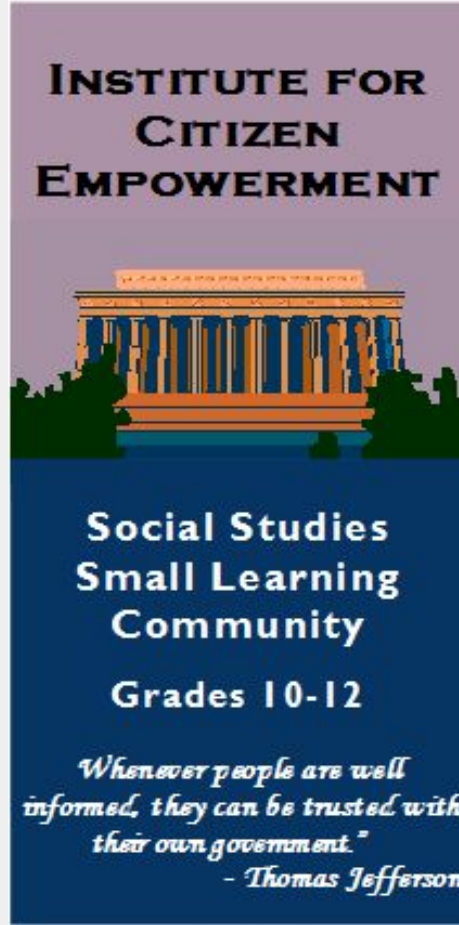

INSTITUTE FOR CITIZEN EMPOWERMENT (ICE)

To Join ICE:

- A student must complete a program application in the middle of his/her freshman year, expressing interest in joining ICE.
- In true democratic spirit, ALL WOHS students are welcome.
- The program can be completed at either the college prep or Honors/AP level.

Students must participate in one or more of the following:

- Mock Trial
- JSA
- Unity Club
- JROTC
- Rho Kappa

Program Highlights:

Students will move as a unit from their sophomore year ICE classes into their junior and then senior year ICE classes.

Each year, students in the ICE will take 5 – 10 credits within the small learning community. At the end of three years, students will have taken at least 25 credits within the ICE Small Learning Community.

Students will engage in a number of extra-curricular activities focusing on the roles and responsibilities of an educated and informed citizen. Community service projects, field trips, guest speakers and other action learning projects will be an essential component of the program.

INSTITUTE FOR CITIZEN EMPOWERMENT (ICE)

