

INSTITUTE FOR CITIZEN EMPOWERMENT
(ICE)

Application Process:

Students apply for admission into the ICE program during their 9th grade year.

Course Sequence:

This Social Studies based small learning community begins with the student's application in his/her freshman year, and enrollment in the Institute for Citizen Empowerment in the sophomore year. Students will move as a unit from their sophomore year ICE classes into their junior and then senior year ICE classes.

Each year, students in the ICE will take 5 – 10 credits within the small learning community. At the end of three years, students will have taken at least 25 credits within the ICE Small Learning Community. The three year course sequence is listed below.

Program Highlights:

Students will engage in a number of extra-curricular activities focusing on the roles and responsibilities of an educated and informed citizen. Community service projects, field trips, guest speakers and other action learning projects will be an essential component of the program.
